Addictive Disorders Regulatory Authority
(ADRA)
APPLICATION FOR
APPROVED INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION (AIHE)
DESCRIPTION

The ADRA operates a program to register a qualifying organization as an Approved Institution of Higher Education (AIHE) to implement the provisions of the Addictive Disorders Act R.S. 37:3371-3384. The rule governing this program was promulgated according to law and is recorded in LAC 46:LXXX.1709. The following instructions and regulations are part of the Policies and Procedures which the ADRA has prepared for the operation of the AIHE program. The purpose of the AIHE program is to assure that potential addiction counselors and prevention specialists receive quality professional education. Applicants for addiction counselor certification must have at least 12 semester hours, and up to 30 semester hours, of college credit in substance abuse counseling courses from an AIHE. Applicants for prevention specialist certification may have up to 30 semester hours of college credit in prevention related courses. The intent of the AIHE program is to provide standards for the conduct of college education directly related to addiction counseling and prevention. Institutions which qualify for the AIHE designation are granted significant privileges provided they continue to meet or exceed these standards. Among the privileges are, Announce to the public and advertise the availability of its addiction counseling and prevention curriculum. Offer practicum or internship courses in substance abuse counseling and prevention for credit. Assure its students that their education will contribute toward meeting the requirement of the ADRA for certification as an addiction counselor or prevention specialist. The AIHE program is designed to simplify and expedite the process of offering quality college education in the fields of addiction counseling and prevention, while maintaining high standards and adherence to the requirements of the law.

REQUIREMENTS and INSTRUCTIONS FOR AIHE

Institutions which grant formal college credit for courses in substance abuse counseling and/or prevention, have sufficient qualified faculty, and can offer supervised clinical practicum or internship courses may register with the ADRA as an Approved Institution of Higher Education, also known as AIHE.

An institution shall be granted the AIHE designation provided:

1. A satisfactory application form is submitted to the office of the ADRA.
2. The institution is an organized college or university accredited by a recognized regional accrediting body.
3. The institution provides a statement, signed by an authorized officer of the institution, to document:
   a. The institution's desire and intent to provide substance abuse counseling and/or prevention education.
   b. Acknowledgment of responsibility for such activities.
   c. Acknowledgment that the institution is independent of the ADRA.
   d. Acknowledgment that the institution shall hold the ADRA harmless.
   e. Acknowledgment that the institution shall comply with the requirements of the ADRA, and that failure to do so may result in forfeiture of the AIHE designation.
4. The institution provides descriptions which document:
   a. The appropriateness of their curriculum.
   b. The qualifications of the faculty to teach such courses.
   c. The policy on practicum and internship courses.
   d. That education, training, experience, and supervision, when appropriate, in all 12 core functions and/or 5 performance domains will be provided.
5. The institution provides a summary statement of its continuous quality improvement program and agrees to maintain full records of that program.

This is a reminder for those completing the application package for the AIHE Program to check all the requirements listed in the instructions, particularly #3. This requirement is necessary to establish the legal structure between your program and the ADRA. The required statement must be signed by the Supervisor of Educational Programs for your institution. The statement must include the following points:

a. your institution's desire and intent to provide continuing professional education in substance abuse counseling and/or prevention,

b. acknowledgment of your institution's responsibility for such activities,

c. acknowledgment that your institution is independent of the ADRA,

d. acknowledgment that your institution shall hold the ADRA harmless, and

e. acknowledgment that your institution shall comply with the requirements of the ADRA, and failure to do so shall result in forfeiture of the AIHE designation.

The application form lists this statement as the second item on the "check list" of documentation to be submitted with the application. It is your responsibility to write the statement consistent with your institution's policies and, at the same time, to satisfy the ADRA's requirements.

I, ________________________________, am the Supervisor of Education Programs and my signature below affirms full acceptance of the terms in this document.
