

Chapter 17. ADRA Approved Education Providers

§1701. Counselor in Training (CIT) or Prevention Specialist in Training (PSIT)

Repealed.

§1703. Certified Clinical Supervisor or Qualified Professional Supervisor

Repealed.

§1705. Approved Training Institution

- A. The ADRA shall develop policies and procedures for the approval and operation of an approved training institution (ATI).
- B. Approved training institution (ATI) status is granted to the nearest renewal date after the request for ATI status is approved, provided a completed application is submitted to and approved by the ADRA.
- C. To maintain ADRA approval, training institutions must adhere to the supervision guidelines established by the ADRA. The ADRA may inspect and review such institutions during normal hours of operation.
- D. Renewal
 - l. ATI status shall be renewed annually, provided:
 - a. a completed renewal application is received prior to the expiration date; and
 - b. the ATI shows continued compliance with all applicable ADRA guidelines, policies, and procedures.

§1707. Approved Educational Provider

- A. The ADRA shall develop policies and procedures for the approval and operation of an approved educational provider.
- B. The designation of approved educational provider (AEP) status is granted to the nearest renewal date after the request for AEP status is approved, provided a completed application is submitted to and approved by the ADRA,
- C. Registration as an AEP status shall be renewed annually:
 - l. a completed renewal application is received prior to the expiration date; and
 - 2. the AEP shows continued compliance with all applicable ADRA guidelines, policies and procedures,

D. An organization may be granted approval as a single course provider provided a completed application is submitted to and approved by the ADRA prior to offering the course.

§1709. Approved Institution of Higher Education (AIHE)

A. The ADRA shall develop policies and procedures for the approval and operation of an approved institution of higher education (AIHE).

B. The designation of AIHE status is granted to the nearest renewal date one year after the request for AIRE status is approved provided a completed application is submitted to and approved by the ADRA.

C, Registration as an AIHE status shall be renewed annually provided:

1. a completed renewal application is received prior to the expiration date; and
2. the AIRE shows continued compliance with all applicable ADRA guidelines, policies, and procedures.