CERTIFIED CLINICAL SUPERVISOR (CCS) Eligibility Requirements

The ADRA shall issue a Certified Clinical Supervisor (CCS) credential to an applicant who meets the following requirements:

1. Is at least twenty-one (21) years of age;
2. Holds and maintains a current Licensed Addiction Counselor (LAC), Certified Addiction Counselor (CAC), Registered Addiction Counselor (RAC), or Licensed Mental Health Professional (LMHP) credential with an addiction specialty add-on;
3. Is a legal resident of the United States;
4. Is not in violation of any ethical standard of the ADRA or any other licensing, certification, or credentialing board;
5. Agrees to follow the ADRA Code of Ethics and all applicable ADRA rules;
6. Has not abused substances or engaged in compulsive gambling for at least two (2) years before applying;
7. Has not been convicted of a felony unless approved under the ADRA Felony Waiver Policy;
8. Submits a completed application and pays all required fees;
9. Completes ninety (90) clock hours of education, including:
 - a. Sixty (60) hours in substance use disorder/addiction-specific education; and
 - b. Thirty (30) hours in clinical supervision and supervision domains;
10. Completes ten thousand (10,000) hours of work experience in substance use disorder treatment, including four thousand (4,000) hours in a supervisory position; and
11. Passes the IC&RC Clinical Supervision Examination.

Renewal Requirements Every Two (2) Years

To renew a CCS credential, the credential holder shall:

1. Submit a completed renewal application;
2. Pay all required renewal fees;
3. Maintain a valid qualifying credential as an LAC, CAC, RAC, or LMHP with an addiction specialty;
4. Complete fourteen (14) clock hours of continuing education during the renewal period, including:
 - a. Eight (8) hours in clinical supervision and/or supervision domains; and
 - b. Six (6) hours in professional ethics; and
5. Remain in compliance with ADRA ethical standards and rules.

Late Renewal

Late renewals will be assessed a late fee.

If a CCS credential has been expired for more than twelve (12) months, the applicant must pass the IC&RC Clinical Supervision Examination again before the credential can be renewed.

Maintenance of Credential

A CCS credential holder must maintain an active qualifying credential at all times. Failure to maintain a qualifying credential may result in the suspension, loss, or non-renewal of the CCS credential.
