

LOUISIANA

Addictive Disorder Regulatory Authority

CERTIFIED PREVENTION SUPERVISOR (CPS) Eligibility Requirements

The ADRA shall issue a Certified Prevention Supervisor (CPS) credential to an applicant who meets the following requirements:

1. Is at least twenty-one (21) years of age;
 2. Holds and maintains a current Licensed Prevention Professional (LPP) or Certified Prevention Professional (CPP) credential;
 3. Is a legal resident of the United States;
 4. Is not in violation of any ethical standard of the ADRA or any other licensing, certification, or credentialing board;
 5. Agrees to follow the ADRA Code of Ethics and all applicable ADRA rules;
 6. Has not had an addictive disorder or compulsive gambling disorder for at least two (2) years before applying;
 7. Has not been convicted of a felony unless approved under the ADRA Felony Waiver Policy;
 8. Signs any forms required by the ADRA, including authorization for a criminal background check;
 9. Submits a completed application and pays all required fees;
 10. Completes ten thousand (10,000) hours of work experience in the field of prevention;
 11. Completes four thousand (4,000) hours of work experience in a prevention supervisory position; and
 12. Completes thirty (30) clock hours of ADRA-approved prevention supervision education.
-

Renewal Requirements Every Two (2) Years

To renew a CPS credential, the credential holder shall:

1. Submit a completed renewal application;
 2. Pay all required renewal fees;
 3. Maintain a current and valid LPP or CPP credential;
 4. Complete fourteen (14) clock hours of continuing education during the renewal period, including: a. Eight (8) hours in prevention supervision education related to prevention domains and/or supervision; and b. Six (6) hours in prevention ethics;
 5. Remain in compliance with ADRA ethical standards and rules; and
 6. Report any information required by the ADRA regarding disciplinary actions, sobriety status, felony arrests or convictions, and changes in contact information.
-

Late Renewal

Late renewals will be assessed a late fee.